

VERGARA INCIDENT REMAINS A MYSTERY

IDENTITY OF PERSONS WHO BROUGHT BODY ACROSS BOR-DER IS STILL UNKNOWN.

BLISS MAKES REPORT

American Commander Says Dead
Man's Relatives and Hired Mexicans Exhumed and Transported Remains.

Austin, Tex., March 10.—No further information on the identity of the party of Texans who recovered Clemente Vergara's body from his Mexican grave was expected today, pending
conclusion of the official investigation now in progress by both federal and state authorities. Governor Colquhoun is out of the city on a two-day's trip to Fort Worth.

Henry Hutchings, state adjutant general, has begun at Laredo an investigation ordered by Gov. Colquhoun who did not make public what specific instructions if any he gave Hutchings.
It is known that the stories of torture based on the charged condition of Vergara's hands, will receive close attention in this investigation.

Identity Still Unknown.
"There still was no information so far as is known here from Captain J. J.
Saunders of the Texas Rangers, as to the identity of the person or persons who he has claimed informed him he would find the body on the American shore of the Rio Grande river at 3:30 Sunday morning. Saunders' official report also was blank as to the identity of those who made the night trip into Mexico.

The burning of Vergara's band,
which apparently is discredited in Gen. Bliss' report to Washington today, was reported as a fact by Captain Saunders of the Texas Rangers whose official statement read: "One band burned to a crisp."

Bliss Makes Report.
Washington, March 10.—Secretary
Garrison received today from Brigadier General Tasked H. Bliss, commanding the American border forces,
the following report on the Vergara case by Captain H. E. Howard of the 14th United States Cavalry.

"Investigation shows Vergara's body
was taken from the Hidalgo cemetery
Saturday night by relatives of Vergara and hired Mexicans. Captain Sanders states positively no Texas soldiers crossed the border. He met the body at a landing opposite San Enrique with Undertaker Convery
brought the body to Laredo at 7:30 p. m.
Sunday. He states that there were no signs of burial on the body. He found four bullet holes, neck chafed but not broken. Body decomposed but pants matched coat left at home by Vergara.
Identification seems reliable. Recovery of body said to have been made by brother-in-law of Vergara, $400.
Body being held at request of Adjutant General Hutchings. No excitement."

Didn't Cross Border.
Secretary Bliss, entering the cabinet meeting, said American Consul Garrett reported that relatives of Clemente Vergara recovered his body on Sunday and that Texas Rangers did not cross the border.

Consul Garrett, he had been notified that he would go to a place
on the American side of the Rio Grande across from Hidalgo, Mexico, at four o'clock Sunday morning. He went to find the body. He went there in company with Captain Saunders of the Texas Rangers and the body was delivered by friends of Vergara. Mr.
Garrett added that he was sending a full report by mail. Mr. Bryan said that no new representations had been made to the government.

No Conflict.
No conflict will arise between the federal government and the state of Texas over the recovery of the body of Vergara, the military and civil authorities. Further steps demanding punishment of Vergara's assassins
will be taken.

That was the status of the case after a cabinet meeting today. The officially accepted view was that Vergara was lured across the border and murdered and his body subsequently was recovered by his own friends—
not Texas rangers—who crossed into Mexico as private individuals and not as an armed expedition.

Texas Dispatch.
El Paso, Tex., March 10.—Constitutional officers today said reports
from Torreon were that the situation is quiet with no reports of fighting in that neighborhood. The last battle in that district of which rebel authorities have any knowledge was one reported in dispatches from Mexico
City about week ago.

Discuss Benton Situation.
London, Eng., March 10.—The death
at Juarez of William S. Benton came up for discussion in the house of commons today. The question of whether Benton was asked whether it was not possible to refer the question of redress for the Benton murder to the Hague
for arbitration.

Mr. Edward Gray replied that technically and theoretically it was, and continued:
"In practice, however, at the presentment there is no satisfaction to be obtained by arbitration and I am not prepared to agree that in this case arbitration would be the most fitting method for securing redress."

Brazil's Capital to Continue Under Siege Rest of Month

President de Fonseca of Brazil and bird's-eye view of Rio de Janeiro.

Rio de Janeiro, March 10.—Martial law was proclaimed today throughout the state of Ceara. Federal troops have been placed on guard at the principal commercial and private houses in Fortaleza, the state capital, owing to the outbreak of a strike.
Martial law was proclaimed in the city several days ago.

The commander of the troops at Fortaleza telegraphed to the minister of war today that trade was at a standstill and the strikers were parading the streets, threatening the population and breaking into private dwellings.

The local authorities of the state of Ceara are powerless to enforce order and the federal commander
reports that a force of rebels is encamped about 16 miles from Fortaleza.

IMMIGRATION BILL MAY BE DISSOLVED

Literacy Test is Cause For Much Worry Among Senators.—To Hear Wilson's Arguments.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, March 10.—Whether to let the literacy test remain in the immigration bill and risk the president's veto or to strike it out and insure preserving the rest of the legislation, much of it considered very important, was discussed at length today by the senate immigration committee without a decision. Another meeting will be held Thursday.

The protest of the Italian government against American health inspectors on immigrant vessels has been considered but the provision is still in the bill.

Some senators expect to see President Wilson before the committee
meets again and learn possible, just what sort of literacy test if any, would be acceptable to him.

Senator Cummins' amendment to the interstate commerce law to define liability of common carriers for freight was tentatively approved by a senate committee today with amendments.

Carriers would be held liable for the full actual value of property, notwithstanding any limitation in bills of lad-ing or receipts and it would be unlawful to incorporate in bills of lading
any limitation of time within which notice of loss of damage to property must be given or suit therefore be brought.

It is planned to have the trade commission bill ready for discussion in
the house by April 1 and to that end
the house committee on interstate
commerce is bending its energies.

Washington, March 10.—Hasten
the anti-trust bill, is the word actuating the congressional committees to get their program ready for early action.

The senate sub-committee on interstate commerce has decided to vote rights to complete its draft of the interstate trade commission bill.

Chairman Clayton of the house judiciary committee, who conferred with President Wilson yesterday, had a sub-committee busy today revising
the measures to supplement the Sherman law.

It is planned to have the trade commission bill ready for discussion in
the house by April 1 and to that end
the house committee on interstate
commerce is bending its energies.

BANKER IMPRISONED AFTER LONG APPEAL

Attorney Keeps Trust Company Head
From Sing Sing for 900 Days After Conviction—Seeks Pardon.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, March 10.—William J.
Cummins, at one time head of the defunct Carnegie Trust company, who was convicted nearly three years ago
of larceny of $140,000, was taken to Sing Sing prison from the Tombs today to serve out a sentence of not less than four years and eight months and not more than eight years and eight months.

By appeal and other technical legal maneuvers, Cummins kept himself out of Sing Sing for nearly nine hundred days after his conviction. He now will appeal to Governor Glynn for a pardon on the ground that he rendered assistance to the state hearings regarding the Trust company.

HOLD INQUEST OVER DEATH OF SERVANT

District Attorney Starts Investigation and Coroner Empanels Jury on Death of Servant Girl.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Sheboygan, March 10.—A coroner's inquest is being held this afternoon
to investigate the death of Miss Dora Verke, aged twenty-eight. Miss Verke who is said to have been employed as a domestic in Elkhardt Lake, came to Sheboygan on March 2d and stopped
with Mrs. Anna Meyer. She died Sunday, March 8th.

The death certificate was signed by Dr. W. C. St. Sure, the coroner of the death being given as peritonitis.

The matter was directed to the attention of District Attorney W. B.
Collins and Coroner Arthur Knopf,
who empaneled a jury and reviewed
the remains and then adjourned until two o'clock this afternoon when an inquest will be held.

"PING" BODIE SIGNS
WHITE SOX CONTRACT;
CICOTTE HOLDS OUT

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, March 10.—"Ping" Bodie,
the hard-hitting outfielder of the Chicago Americans, has signed a 1914
contract, according to a message from Macramento where the White Sox
were to play a practice game today.

But Eddie Cicotte is the only one of the Sox who has not yet signed,
and it is understood he is holding out
for an advance in salary because of the good record he made last year.
Cicotte is said to have been offered a place in the Federal league.

FAVORS REGULATION OF STOCK EXCHANGES

Samuel Untermyer of New York
Urges His Measure Before Senate Banking Committee.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, March 10.—Samuel Un-termyer of New York today appeared before the senate banking and currency committee in reply to arguments against the bill he has fathered for the regulation of stock exchanges.

Instead of the bill "Russianizing the press," as claimed by Senator Hitchcock, Mr. Untermyer declared it merely empowered the postmaster general
to exclude from the mails any publication containing the quotation of an exchange not incorporated in accordance with the state law.

"Permit me to say that the power and momentum of the press are increasing at such a rate that the danger is that the press may Russianize the people," said Mr. Untermyer.

Mr. Untermyer further declared that opponents of the bill had been forced to admit that federal regulation of stock exchanges was necessary. For state incorporation and postal supervision as proposed in the senate bill
the opponents had failed to point out
an effective alternate, he said.

"Mr. Milburn, speaking for the New York stock exchange, suggests that a bill similar to that under which totter-ies would suppress that would deny the use of the mails and telegraph for the distribution of fictitious and unlawful transactions would answer the purpose," continued Mr. Untermyer.

"To me it is manifest that it would be as valuable as a blank piece of paper. Anybody can detect a lottery ticket, but Mr. Milburn fails to explain how fraudulent or fictitious or manipulative quotations are to be detected unless some machinery is supplied for the purpose of safeguarding the mails
against being used for their dissemination."

Mr. Untermyer stated that prevention and punishment of manipulations
were the chief aims of the bill and that it did not seek to prohibit speculation.

STRIKERS IN ROME RETURNING TO WORK

Police Fire Volley Into Mob, Killing
One and Wounding Others.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Rome, March 10.—A number of strikers were wounded today and one is reported killed in an encounter with the police in the vicinity of the ministry of the interior. The police fired volleys into the crowds. After the strikers had dispersed, the wounded were taken inside the ministry of the interior for treatment.

After the display of soldiers and checked by several cavalry charges,
which frustrated attempts at disorder,
the workmen of Rome who yesterday had declared a general strike,
decided today to resume work.

Before this announcement was made, a mob of about 1,000 men
marched to the ministry of the interior,
which was dispersed by the police,
who fired several volleys into the air.

STATE CATHOLIC CLUBS OPPOSE EUGENICS BEING TAUGHT BEFORE STUDENTS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Sheboygan, March 10.—The officers of the state federation of Catholic societies of Wisconsin and upper Michigan while assembled in Sheboygan
adopted the following resolutions:
Resolved, That we positively protest against the teachings of sex
eugenics being taught in public schools of the country. We are convinced that this will not decrease but increase a spread of immorality. As a result of the teaching of eugenics
immorality we suggest a sound training of the young people to a good character on a Christian basis. We are fully aware of the evil brought about by the teaching of eugenics and we appeal to all Catholic societies of the state and all friends of morals that they use all their influence to prohibit the teaching of eugenics and prevent further adoption of similar measures.

REMAINS OF LATE GEORGE VANDERBILT ARE INTERRED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, March 10.—The body of George W. Vanderbilt was laid at rest today in the family mausoleum
in the Moravian cemetery at New York State Island, near the old Vanderbilt residence, where he was born 52 years ago. The Right Rev.
David H. Greer, Episcopal bishop of New York, conducted a brief service at the tomb. A small company of relatives and friends, who came from Washington last night after the funeral services in that city, was at the cemetery.

DENY BANKER'S CHARGES FOR IMPEACHING JUDGE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, March 10.—Charles
C. Cox, a banker, who was charged with impeaching Justice D. T. Wright of the district supreme court, asking for his impeachment, were dismissed by the house judiciary committee as "unsubstantiated."

FIREMEN PENETRATE CLUBHOUSE RUINS IN SEARCH OF DEAD

Fire Fighters Look For Bodies in Ruins
of Missouri Athletic Club at St. Louis.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
St. Louis, March 10.—Firemen today began to penetrate the ruins of the Missouri Athletic Club's building in search of the dead of St. Louis' greatest fire disaster. As water still was being played on the ruins and some parts of the interior still were ablaze,
the men could not go very far within
the ruins.

Early investigation showed the vaults of the Boatmen's Bank, which occupied the two first floors of the building, to be intact. Covered by tons of brick, granite and twisted steel, the vaults hold safe more than one million three hundred thousand dollars in currency, about twenty-seven thousand dollars in coin and many million dollars worth of stocks and bonds.

HAS POWER TO FIX OFFICER'S SALARY

Attorney General Upholds Law With Reference to County Board of Education.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., March 10.—Whether a county board of education can validly be authorized to fix the salary of the county superintendent of schools is the question of the day. The county superintendent of schools is passed upon affirmatively in an opinion by Attorney General Owen
to the district attorney, David Hogge, who is in charge today.

Hogge said that it had frequently been held that the power to fix salaries
may be delegated to a minor board or officers. He also held that where a school district is taxed for the support of a city superintendent of schools
and territory in an adjoining town is taxed for the support of the city school system, and that portion of the district lying outside of the city is taxed for the support of the county board of education, this double taxation does not render the law unconstitutional.

GERMANY PREPARING COMMERCIAL GROWTH

Taking Active Steps for Trade Campaign in South America to Compete With United States.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Berlin, March 10.—Germany is preparing for an aggressive commercial campaign in South America to compete what is considered the political and commercial expansion of the United States in that part of the hemisphere.

The first step in this campaign
was the announced trip of Prince Henry, the Kaiser's brother, and Prince Henrich to Buenos Ayres. They were to sail from Hamburg today on the maiden voyage of the new Hamburg-American steamer, the "Graf Trafalgar," which is to be another link
in the commercial chain between Germany and South America.

Although declared "unofficial," it is well understood that Prince Henry goes as the personal representative of his brother, the Kaiser. He will to some extent follow on Roosevelt's trail. The relations between Germany and the Argentine Republic
have been becoming more and more friendly. There are a considerable number of Argentine officers in the German army for study purposes.

There has been organized a "German Argentine Industries" club. This club has been organized to place Argentine products in the German market. It has finally made an appropriation for a German naval attaché at Buenos Ayres.

But what is considered one of the most important steps in the plan of the German government is the cable
news service between Germany and South America, which is well under way. This has the government support and men close to the government are financing the scheme.

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING IS ATTRACTING GERMAN IMMIGRANTS TO STATE

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., March 10.—The Wisconsin immigration commission has hopes that 45 Germans will emigrate to Wisconsin this year as a result of classifying advertisements inserted in metropolitan and farm papers. Commissioner E. C. Parker yesterday received a request from Hamburg, Germany, for religious and political freedom, and conditions, and a cable advising that it will be sent immediately, was promptly returned.

The Hamburg inquirer said that 45
prospective settlers are about to emigrate to America. Commissioner Parker says that the board's newspaper advertising is bringing fifty inquiries a day from many states, and that from today's interest is increasing. Early in the year, 1914 promises to be the best year in the history of the board.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE OPERATORS BANKRUPT; WORKED IN OTHER CITIES

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, March 10.—The W. A.
Fraser company, board of trade operators here since 1895, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy today.
The assets are given as $420,000 and liabilities as $180,000. The concern also operates in Minneapolis and Milwaukee.

SIGN AGREEMENT FOR ABOUT BOLON AND WILLIAMS TODAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, March 10.—The date of the coming fight between Johnnie Bolon and "Kid" Williams in Chicago, and Chicago was today fixed for June 9 and the agreement was signed.

CONSOLIDATE LEADING PAPERS OF WATERLOO

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Waterloo, Ia., March 10.—The Evening Courier and Daily Reporter, two of the oldest newspapers in Iowa, have been consolidated and the result will be issued from the Courier office.

ITALIAN CABINET OFFICIAL HANDS IN RESIGNATION TODAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Rome, March 10.—The resignation of the Italian cabinet officially was announced today by Premier Giovanni Giulitti.

GIVEN HEAVY FINE UNDER THE COMMITMENT LAW

Dr. Charles T. Peirce was brought into the municipal court this morning
on a charge of drunkenness and on his plea of guilty was given ten days
in jail. A twenty-five dollar fine or thirty-five days in jail if the fine is not paid.
Dr. Peirce, who is a dentist, was arrested on River street last night and in court this morning E. H. Peterson recommended that the exhibit on sentencing be given. Judge Maxfield imposed the sentence and under the commitment law his wages from his practice will be given to his family.

OFFER OF ASQUITH ON HOME RULE BILL IS BIG COMPROMISE

Final Adjustment of Ulster Contention is Foreseen as Result of Coming Debate.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, March 10.—The possibility of a settlement of the Irish home rule controversy was today again in the forefront of popular interest. The opinion of the various parties as to the effect of the concession offered in the house of commons yesterday by Premier Asquith differed widely. The Unionists as a rule expressed themselves unsatisfied with the suggested method of voting by counties on the exclusion of Ulster or portions of it from the operation of the home rule bill.

Limit of Conciliation.
Nationalists, on the other hand, declared that the cabinet had gone to the limit towards conciliation. The independent opinion of the country seemed inclined to the feeling that the concession offers an opportunity for conciliation and this feeling is strengthened by Sir Edward Carson's counter-offer on behalf of the Ulster conference, limiting the concession to a period of six years be struck out.

It is pointed out here in parliamentary circles that the recognition by the cabinet of the principle of the exclusion
of Ulster if they vote in favor of it,
even if the exclusion be only temporary, is a great step in advance from last year's policy of "full steam ahead."

King Uses Influence.
This attitude of the cabinet and the Irish nationalists, it is argued, allows for negotiations during the three weeks for which the debate of the home rule bill has been adjourned.

King George is believed to have had a hand in inducing Premier Asquith to make the proffered concession and it is held that if his majesty continues his activity in this respect
the two parties may be enabled to bridge over the differences separating them.

THWART MILITANTS IN RESCUE ATTEMPT

Glasgow Suffragettes Who Planned to Rush Police Who Arrested Mrs.
Pankhurst Are Outwitted.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Glasgow, Scotland, March 10.—
Bands of determined militant suf-ragettes waited at all the railway stations in Glasgow today in readiness to fight for the rescue of Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst. The militant leader,
however, who was arrested last night,
while speaking in St. Andrew's hall,
was removed from the station house
to a suburban railway station early this morning in order to avoid the attention of the press supporters.

Hurried to London.
Mrs. Pankhurst was carried from her cell to a waiting automobile on a platform and the motor car then dashed off at high speed to a station
on the main line of the railway,
where she was carried on board the express train for London.

It is assumed that the militant leader will be placed in a prison where she will be guarded by a large force of police. Many of the policemen who assisted in Mrs. Pankhurst's arrest last night, suffered severe scratches from her attack on the picture which had been stretched across the platform from which she was speaking.

London, March 10.—The Richardson, a notorious militant suffragette,
did great damage to the famous
"Rokeby Venus" picture, known as the national gallery on Trafalgar Square.

A picture was purchased for $225,000 in 1906 and presented to the nation. Art experts have estimated its present market value at $500,000.
The woman entered the gallery and did great damage to the picture with a knife, making six or seven bad cuts across the canvas. She was arrested.

Mae Richardson has been sentenced to several terms of imprisonment since the beginning of the militant woman suffrage movement.

After her arrest Miss Richardson
said, "I tried to destroy the picture of the most beautiful woman in mythological history as a protest against the government for destroying Mrs.
Emeline Pankhurst, who is the most beautiful character in modern history."

The police magistrate committed Miss Richardson for trial at the session and refused to grant bail.

Strong detachments of militant suffragettes today picketed every London railway terminus at which Mrs. Emeline Pankhurst might arrive when she reached here from Scotland. Squads of suffragettes were also stationed outside the entrances to Holloway jail.

PITTSBURG WILL HELP MEN WITH SETTLEMENT BUILDING AND CENTER

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Pittsburg, March 10.—Preachers,
bankers, educators and sociologists
prominent in this city today are backing a movement to care for the hundreds of German and Polish immigrants who are flocking to this city on par in its facilities to help
the unfortunate with Chicago, Boston,
St. Louis and other large cities.

The plan as outlined contemplates an institute at Market street and Third avenue, where the new mission, which will be controlled by the Pittsburg Presbytery, food and lodging will be afforded those who can pay at small cost, while for those completely "strapped" comfortable quarters, food and employment will be provided. Connected with this institution will be given. One large room will be set aside for religious services and a social center. Only the amplification and carrying out of the plan remain to be worked out.

VARITY GRADUATES OF AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL ENGAGED IN FARMING.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., March 10.—It is estimated by the university authorities here that between 80 and 90 percent of the 150 men graduating this year from the agricultural school will engage in farming. The university returns to the farm to actually engage in farming.

The successes of former students
as dairymen, stock raisers, poultrymen, orchardists, grain growers and market gardeners are yearly attracting an increased number to this practical course. It has grown from 19 students in one room in 1885
to the 450 young men from 60
counties from eleven other states
and from two foreign countries.

CALLS CONFERENCE TO DISCUSS NEEDS OF SCHOOL SYSTEM

State Superintendent Cary Says Competent Teachers Are Exceedingly Scarce—Wants Others' Views.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., March 10.—Believing that the securing of competent teachers is one of the gravest problems in the educational system, State Superintendent C. P. Cary has called a meeting to be held here April 10 and 11, to determine upon possible remedies of the situation.

"Our teachers are mostly women
who teach but a few years, then drop out of the ranks," says Mr. Cary in his letter inviting attendance.

STATE GOVERNMENT THOROUGHLY ALARMED

T. C. RICHMOND, WHO SPOKE AT MEETING HERE, WRITES ON SITUATION.

A STATEWIDE PROTEST

Is Having Its Effect—Indictment of Present Administration Will Not Be Ignored.

Hon. T. C. Richmond of Madison, who spoke at the recent gathering of taxpayers held here two weeks ago, has written an article on the general indictment of the present state administration as voiced by the various meetings that are being held throughout the state. He says in the Madison Democrat:

"There is among some of our friends in the administration a perceptible nervousness. They apprehend danger. They hear something. It is more than a murmur of discontent. It is fast getting to be a roar of dissatisfaction. This is a disquieting this displeasure, local in its effect, covering the entire state, affecting all classes—touching all interests. It is not a mere annoyance that has caused this situation. It is abuse of power, a betrayal of trust, an assumption of authority that never was granted. A confident people find that their confidence is misplaced. A trusting electorate are now convinced that in some way, whether purposely or ignorantly, they have been misled, deceived.

"Another important fact now faces us. Not only are the people now fully alive to the seriousness of the present situation, but those who are responsible for high taxes, centralized power, government interference in private affairs, inquisitorial methods, and other evils, know that the present popular state-wide protest is not a mere temporary phenomenon. It will pass away, but a determined indictment of officialdom that will be passed to trial before the court of the people. To meet the issues now raised all the statistical, oratorical, editorial, literary and political power of the state capital is pressed into service. From the public addresses now being delivered, the special articles being prepared, the complicated and entirely irrelevant tables and diagrams being published, one would think we were in the midst of a heated campaign. The farmers are aroused as never before. All over the state they are holding indignation meetings. Their taxes in most places average from 25 to 50 per cent more than last year, and that notwithstanding promises of lower taxes because of increased railroad and insurance taxes and the income tax.

"Why this flutter, this excitement, this undue anxiety in official circles? Why the knowingly false and oft-repeated statement in certain quarters that the present popular uprising is caused by a few selfish politicians for selfish and sinister purposes?

"The remarkable movement among the people is spontaneous. There are no leaders. None are needed. Every intelligent man knows the facts. He knows that something unusual has occurred; that some singular change has been brought about; that things are not as they were. Every observing man knows from daily observation that some new power has appeared that some new influence is at work that some heretofore unknown and unrecognized authority is directing the facts. A tax receipt tells its story. An order from a commission speaks for itself and tells of the existence of a new power. We no longer have, as of old, three departments of government—legislative, executive and judicial. A new power has appeared to direct our affairs, control our policy, interfere in our industrial activities, makes it hard felt wherever enterprise is at work, or labor and capital are employed. The fact is, the real power in Wisconsin today, the one felt most in every department of industrial and official life, is a combination of the state commissions with the University of Wisconsin. That combination drafts our laws. It more than all other influences secures their enactment. It is active every day in the year in their enforcement. The university feeds the commissions, and the commissions furnish places of power and profit for the output of the university. The state officials, who in olden time constituted the administrative department of the government, who generally managed the state affairs, are practically lost sight of. They do not come into the head of the state treasurer, for instance, who is held responsible for the care and disbursement of the millions of state funds, has the power to appoint but one of his assistants and clerks who work under his direction. The attorney general, who is weighted down with all the legal work of the state, who must control, manage and direct a litigation in which the state is interested, who must give legal advice to almost every official who calls on him, has the power to appoint but one member of all his official force, and even this small modicum of power was newly taken away from these state officers. In the last session of the legislature, the last session of the legislature, is in charge of affairs. The people have been flattered and fooled into believing that they were really running their own business, when, all the time, they were being tied hand and foot and placed under the control of new masters. About all there is now left for the people to do is, as Kipling says—'Pay, pay, pay.'

And this new power grows. There is no standstill about it. Like all tyrannies, it is grasping, insatiable, offensive, dictatorial, imperious. The power of the railroad rate commission when first organized as a commission, what it is today is about equal to the commission of a mole to an elephant. The powers of the tax commission at the time of its origin as compared with its powers and activities today are about as a June zephyr compared with a January blizzard. And so with the others, only not to so great an extent.

"From their inception and organization to the present hour, the constant demand of these commissions has been and is now—power, power, and more power—money, money, and more money. The sovereign, that is the people, has been transformed into a slave. The servant, that is, the modest obedient official, has grown (by what he had fed on) to be an imperious Caesar.

"In every town, village and city of this state, in every field of industry and enterprise, the hand of this new power is felt and the expense of its existence and operation has increased amazingly.

"Is there a remedy? Yes. The people are yet politically omnipotent if they will but open their eyes, take in the real situation and act promptly. When the giant awakens, pigmies seek shelter. A few things are sadly needed now:

"1. Let us have a good old-fashioned state convention made up of the ablest, brainiest, most courageous farmers, manufacturers and business men, to consider the present situation.

"2. Sidetrack or send to the rear, for a time at least, political bosses and chronic office seekers, and let the people themselves, either directly or through their regularly elected delegates, select those whom they desire to make their laws—men who will not take orders from commissions, but who can and will act independently and on their own best judgment.

"3. Elect a repeal legislature, a body of men who will give us the minimum of new legislation and the maximum of repeal legislation, so that at least some of the wrongs under which the people are now suffering may be undone.

"4. Abolish all unnecessary state agencies, whether called commissions or by any other name, combine several of those that serve no useful purpose and limit the powers and lessen the expenses of all.

"5. Cut down taxes to what is absolutely necessary for a government economically administered, and thus give the people financial relief.

"6. Reorganize the board of regents of the university and have it made up about as follows: The ablest educator, the ablest business man and the ablest lawyer that can be found. To these should be added, as the university is a co-educational institution, two of the ablest women in the state. Pay any salary necessary to secure their services, as there is no question but that by so doing hundreds of thousands of dollars will be saved to the state. The president of the university should not be a member of the board of regents.

"When such a board is secured they should promptly order every man and woman connected with that great institution, from president down to the youngest instructor, to keep out of politics, to devote all their time and ability to the great work of teaching, research, developing character, building up the young manhood and womanhood of the state.

"The above is at least a partial program. It will start us on the right track. It will bring us back to the safe road from which we have strayed. When the above program is carried out, and not before, Wisconsin will be again clothed and sitting in her right mind."

NEW EXCHANGE NOW IN FULL OPERATION

Rock County Exchange Modern and Comfortable in All Essential Details.

All of the telephones were finally cut over onto the new switch board in the new exchange of the Rock County Telephone company at the corner of Dodge and Jackson streets last Saturday morning, and now the company has a plant that is modern in every respect. In the new building the first floor is occupied by the main office, the office of the general manager, a store room, a toilet, and the terminal room, which all of the wires enter in the basement there is a shop, the boiler room, the storage battery room, and the room containing the vacuum cleaner. On the second floor the main exchange occupies the front half of the building, while the rear part is taken up by a rest room, a cloak room, and a toilet for the girls. In the rear room light lunches for the operators who cannot get home to lunch. The whole building is light and airy. It is an immense improvement for the city and a credit to the management.

You will not have to say, "Operator, please ring again," if you are calling over the new telephones, because the operator has no longer anything to do with the ringing of parties called after the connection has once been made. By an automatic means, the rings for a second and a half stop for about ten seconds, and then rings again. This is kept up until the party called answers, or the party calling cuts the connection by hanging up. To avoid the inconvenience of listening to buzzing when answering the telephone, the subscriber should wait for the bell to stop ringing before lifting the receiver.

The company has decided to install a new section in the switch board to the fact that so many new subscribers have been added to the exchange, the new office has been equipped. This new section will arrive some time this week, and will be installed immediately.

COMPENSATION LAW WILL BE DISCUSSED

Commissioner Crownhart to Talk in Open Meeting of Builders' Exchange Thursday.

Charles H. Crownhart, chairman of the industrial commission, will be in the city Thursday evening to speak on the workmen's compensation law, under the auspices of the Builders' Exchange. There are many technicalities in this law which are not clear to the minds of many employers and employees, consequently the members of the local Builders' Exchange have taken the opportunity of calling on Mr. Crownhart for a clear explanation of this law, and the principle of indemnity insurance in connection therewith. This meeting will be held in the assembly room of the city hall, and will be called promptly at seven thirty, as Mr. Crownhart desires to return to Madison the same evening. The meeting is open to all who desire to attend, the employers and employees of the city especially being urged to be present. An open discussion of the law will take place after Mr. Crownhart has finished his talk.

Held Meeting: The various presidents of the church brotherhoods in the city, met in session this afternoon at 4:30 to formulate all plans for the coming union banquet Friday night at the Y. M. C. A. building, at which the Presbyterian men are to be the hosts.

TO HAVE VISITING DAY AT EXCHANGE

Will Give Demonstration of Switchboard at Wisconsin Telephone Exchange.

For the purpose of acquainting the subscribers with the method of operation of the multiple switchboard, the Wisconsin Telephone company will hold a visiting day at the exchange building on East Milwaukee street on Thursday and Friday of this week. "The average business man or subscriber has a very little idea of how an exchange is operated and as the telephone is in constant use, our plan of holding these visiting days is to give the patrons a practical demonstration of how conversation is transmitted through a 'phone exchange,'" explained H. J. Bendinger, manager of the Wisconsin Telephone exchange of this city. "With these demonstrations better service should result, for when the subscriber sees the difficulties that confront the operators and learns how one could aid in making more efficient service."

Attendants will explain the operation of the switchboard on the days named between the hours of two until five in the afternoon, and from seven to eight in the evening.

Sport Snap Shots

Tommy Gavigan, the middleweight, did not confine his interests while abroad to fighting alone. Tommy, though he didn't make a great deal out of his encounters, put in a little time at culture and education.

He read up a bit on history and visited such places of interest at Stratford-on-Avon, made famous by Shakespeare, well known dramatic writer of some years ago. It isn't every fighter who would take the trouble to inform himself on matters of culture such as these. The complaint will doubtless arise from some quarters that our present-day scrappers are getting too darned refined and ladylike. However, even though a man has well developed biceps it doesn't reason that he can't invite his soul.

A bush league ump can tell you some merry tales. One of them reported for duty at the headquarters of his league in Louisville and as he sat in the office of the president a pale and trembling person entered the door. Large beads of cold and chilly perspiration listened upon his brow. His knees did a dither with the continuous chattering of his teeth. He fumbled his cap and his stare was far and vacant. He had just made his escape, he explained, from a small West Virginia mountain town, Such-a-ville, where an indignant and choleric body of citizens had threatened him with death. He was still in uniform, torn, dusty and unkempt in a wild scramble from the place to which he hoped the league president would never ask him to return. It seems the people who lived there were fond of baseball, but had no very warm regard for umpires. A decision, ill-judged in their estimation, could only be avenged with some horrible death. The first umpire sitting in his chair laughed loudly at the recital. The president brought a halt to his high. "You may report to finish the series," he said, "at Such-a-ville." The first umpire went out in fear and trembling and the second umpire had recovered enough to chuckle softly.

Maybe the fighter's manager's job is a lucrative one, and then again perhaps it isn't. Dan Morgan, Bat Levin'sky's manager, is thought to be one of the most successful managers in the game. Morgan is well known for his shrewdness and his general business ability, and the popular notion is that he makes a pretty penny at his livelihood. However, a word or two from Morgan discourages the idea. Recently upon the remark of an acquaintance that Dan must have accumulated a neat little pile as fight manager, Morgan spoke up in high irritation and pretty successfully gained the statement, "I'll tell you what I'll do," said Dan, "if you think I'm making such a pile, if you'll assume all my debts, and I'll give you an itemized account of them, I'll let you have my whole business, stable and all, from Levin'sky down, for the terrific sum of $500." And it is generally agreed that Morgan meant it.

MANY TOURNAMENT TEAMS ARE PICKED

Difference of Opinion in Selecting Best Players in Beloit Meet is Distinctly Shown.

At least six Beloit critics have attempted to make their selections for an all-tournament first, second, and in some instances, third teams. When looking over these selections it is found that the minds of the critics differ so widely as to the playing qualities of the players that to pick an official team out of the Beloit 1914 tourney would be an utter impossibility, and would also be absurd. Every critic seems to agree that Dalton deserves special mention. There is no question but that Dalton was the best man in the tournament, and he easily is the selection by the majority on the first team. In picking the centers it is found the Beloit men have Hemming, Ross and McIntosh on their first teams. On one selection Hemming is the third best center in the tourney. Atwood is chosen on all three teams by various critics. Stewart was only named once, and in that instance he was placed on the third team. Stickney was blackballed from every list of teams even for the fact that Stickney was the real sensation in the meet. In drawing conclusions on the picking of these teams, it can merely be stated that it depends on who is picking the team. If an official had been a man from a distance, perhaps 2,000 miles away and unknown by any player in the tourney, a selection by him would have been officially correct, but when one player is known by a critic or official better than another, there is any doubt why the better known man should not be picked by that particular critic? When the state tournament is held at Appleton each year with Referee Schroeder selected, a man from Iowa, there is sure to be a first class selection made, and one which cannot be criticized by the best critics. On one of the selections made by Beloit man Atwood, Hemming and Dalton were placed. Still another critic who attended the tourney stated that he would not hesitate in placing the entire center unit on the first selection. Favoritism is the biggest factor in picking a team by a local or

LOCAL GOLF COURSE NEEDS IMPROVEMENT SAYS CHICK EVANS

Former Western Champion Inspects Links and Advises More Hazards and Side Traps.

Charles "Chick" Evans of Chicago, former western golf champion and one of the foremost exponents of the game in the west, in company with Albert Schaller, Frank S. Buies and H. F. Bliss, inspected the Snississippi golf course yesterday afternoon to discuss plans for a rearrangement of the course. Providing the club members vote to follow the suggestions offered by Mr. Evans the improvements will be made this spring.

The trouble with the Janesville course is that it is too easy, said Mr. Evans after the trip, "and the players are given no real test of the game going over the Janesville links. There is a wide open field with practically no obstacles to overcome and my idea would be to change the links to require playing skill by placing side traps and traps which will compel the player to place his shots rather than just ball around."

"The Snississippi course has the best natural advantages of any course in the state and with certain improvements could be made into one of the best nine hole links in Wisconsin. With new arrangements the players would learn more in a month about the finer arts of the game than they could possibly learn in a year over the present course. Golf is something besides being able to make long drives and if hazards and side traps are put in, the players of the club will learn to judge and place their shots and approaches, where now they have nothing to worry them. The course appears to be in excellent condition and should be in playing condition soon."

"My suggestions would be generally to place more traps, bunkers and hazards, especially on approach shots on the sides of the green and side traps which will compel the player to keep his shots if he is to be successful. Holes number five and six should be made into one, as both are far too short, and breaking number nine into two holes, thereby breaking the monotony of two long holes at the finish. The tee for number seven should be moved fifty yards back, making it in my estimation, the best hole on the course, the distance being about 430 yards. It has natural advantages requiring the golfer to use great skill in both driving and approaching. With these improvements the club members will find their score cards with added figures and for a time they may be rather ashamed of the scores. In the end, when they master the tests they may feel justly proud of their efforts."

ELIMINATION GAMES WILL BE NUMEROUS IN BIG TITLE RACE

Janesville, Together With Other Big Fives in Badgerdom, Are Forced to the Fight for Entrance.

Not only the Janesville high school basketball five, but practically all of Badgerdom's big title competitors will be in the ring when the elimination tickets are handed out for fighting the obstacle at the entrance door for the state tournament the latter part of this month. La Crosse, Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Racine, Janesville, Elkhorn and Menominee will be among the strong aggregations forced to take the meat from lighter teams in the preliminary conflicts. These games will be run off in quick time, so as to afford the elite of each entrance teams sufficient time to recuperate this aiding the Lawrence college management in running off the meet with entire satisfaction and fairness. The sectional elimination contests and teams who will participate in them are given in the following paragraphs.

In the northwestern section, a tourney will be held on the last three days of this week, at Oshkosh Normal, while on the same dates there will be festivities of another tournament at Menominee, to decide which teams will qualify for the state meet. Appleton, Fond du Lac, Oshkosh and Ripon will not play elimination games to get into the tourney at Oshkosh Normal this week. Last Saturday night six of the elimination teams played elimination games for entrance to the elimination tourney this week at Oshkosh. The results of the games are as follows: Veyawaga, 20; Monmouth, 10; Marshfield, 30; West Green Bay, 25; Sheboygan, 14; Two Rivers, 13. Waupaca and Shiocton play early this week, and the winner will be the eighth team to be represented at the meet.

The teams that have shown up strongest in the Northwestern section and who play in the tournament at Menominee are: Oshkosh, Ashland, Claire, Hayward, Washburn, Ashland, Mondovi and Glenwood City. The tournament will be under the supervision of Lawrence.

Only one team will be admitted from the southwestern section and elimination games will be played as follows: Baraboo vs. Sparta, LaCrosse vs. Verona, Tomah vs. Columbus. The winner of the first named contest plays the winner of the Tomah-Columbus game and the winner of that event plays the winner of the LaCrosse-Verona game to come to the state tournament.

The southeastern section is showing up strong this year. The six or seven teams left in the running are all bidding for honors. It was decided at first that Racine play Burlington, the winner to be one of the two teams from the southeastern section to be represented in the state meet. Since Racine were defeated by Kenosha last Friday night at Kenosha, 30 to 17, other arrangements will have to be made. Elimination games will have to be played between Elkhorn and Janesville, Waukesha and Wauwatosa. The two winning teams will meet later and the final winner will be represented at the state meet.

Wausau, Grand Rapids and Superior have not reported, and consequently they will not be admitted.

GIANTS WIN GAME WITH MAROONS LAST EVENING

Starting with a lead that the Maroons found impossible to overcome, the Giants, under the leadership of Captain Huebel, last evening defeated the top notchers in the Y. M. C. A. league. The game was of more than ordinary interest because the Giants are at present holding down the cellar, and the Maroons have been up on the roof. This match will even up the percentage and make the games more hotly contested for the rest of the tourney. Captain Huebel declared his intention last evening of winning all the rest of the games.

The scores in last evening's match were:

Kohler's Maroons.
Kopp	101	169
Kohler	100	130
Hill	153	129
Pinneran	109	131
Jacobson	134	130
Totals	678	813

Huebel's Giants.

Huebel	129	155	161
Hayes	170	168	135
Hughes	157	137	122
Gsell	213	244	122
Richards	139	153	174
Totals	808	757	714

High score was rolled by Gsell, who topped over 213 in the first game. The last game was marked by slow rolling on the part of the majority of the rollers.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Unsettled to night and Wednesday. Probably light snow. Not much change in temperature. Moderate to brisk northerly winds.

SPANISH WAR PENSIONS.

Congress is asked to pass numerous measures for the relief of various parts of our integral government at almost every session. One of the more recent bills is that asking for an appropriation for the widow and orphans of the Spanish-American war. The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin takes exception to this bill. Doubtless they have their reasons. However, the bill is all right. It means much just at this time. We are on the verge, if we may whisper it, of another war. Perhaps not as lasting in effect as the Spanish-American, perhaps more so. The Mexican situation is a trying one to cope with. It may be possible that volunteers will be called for. Men may volunteer. The old bounty days of the civil war will not be necessary, but just the same these men would volunteer much more quickly if they knew those near and dear to them were to be cared for should death call them. The Wisconsin voice is its sentiments in the following editorial:

"It is not wonderful that strenuous opposition looms up against the enactment of the bill for pensions to widows and orphans of soldiers of the Spanish war. This is because of the provisions which would make it a pretext for taking money out of the treasury and giving it to people who never did anything to deserve it. Pensions for women who were wives of American soldiers in war with Spain—women who suffered the deprivation of their husbands' society during that call upon the nation's sons to fight their country's battles—and for American orphans made by the Spanish war—what patriot would object to a reasonable outlay on this account when such wives are left without support by reason of their husbands' death. But pensions for young women who married after the war—that is another proposition entirely; it is a proposition likely to make a great many patriotic Americans angry clear through. Why should such a burden be laid upon the nation? There is no excuse for it, and never will be."

"The amount of money that would be required to float the Spanish war pension project in its present form is not known. Of course it would be enormous, and far beyond any estimate conceded by friends of the bill. But the objection to a bad bill is not what it would cost—it is the vicious principles it would involve. Pensions should be paid only to such as are clearly entitled to receive them—otherwise they represent a disgraceful grabbing of money that belongs to the people."

This may be good doctrine, but it is questionable. The writer of it did not go to the "front" in '98. It is clear to be seen. He did not live for weeks and months on poorly cooked food of inferior quality. He did not sleep in unsanitary camps, where the flies spread disease. He did not volunteer to do what was asked of him regardless of political affiliations and suffer the consequences of disabilities that perhaps did not show up in wars. Uncle Sam pensioned his soldiers of the Revolution, his soldiers of 1812, the Boys of Sixty-one, and why not the widows and orphans of the boys of Ninety-eight?

THE IRISH SITUATION.

Ireland is a small part of the world's domain. Still, however, more history has been enfolded by Ireland and by descendants of the Emerald Isle, than by any other island of equal size. It was St. Patrick who drove all snakes out of the island long ago. Ireland was really a Christian country long before England, yet today England would dictate what is good for Ireland. There are really two Irelands—the north, the protestant and the south, the catholic. Ever since the battle of the Boyne, Ireland has been subject to frequent internal dissensions that have often led to bloodshed. At the present time it would appear as though the English government has been caught as it were in the Caudine Fork as the Christian Science Monitor says in the following editorial:

"The politicians of the United Kingdom have been caught in the Caudine Forks. The nemesis has overtaken them appropriately enough in Ireland, the country where they are learning that centuries of misgovernment cannot be wiped out in a generation. It is all very well for the Roman Catholics of the south to sing 'Ireland a Nation' by the protestant drums of the north are rolling out with steady determination, 'Vivier Hill.' In such circumstances no one pretends to forecast the event. Pass the home rule bill, says Bonar Law, and you will be faced not only by the resentment and defiance of Protestant Ulster, but by the bitter opposition of half the United Kingdom. Your message of peace will be a declaration of war, now, and has accepted a lucrative and even if you win, the era of good will to man will be ushered in the booming of cannon, and the shouts of exorcism of half your fellow countrymen. The majority of the country, returns Mr. Asquith, has pronounced against you. You have been constitutionally defeated, and you reply by a threat of civil war. Even if what you say is true, all Ireland is not north of the Boyne; any more than all Great Britain is in the shires. Dublin and Limerick are quite capable of bettering the lesson of Belfast, and the voices of Romford may be raised in as loud indignation as those of Piccadilly. As Huxley said of the struggle between the materialists and the idealists, it is a drawn battle of assumptions. The way out can only be found in a common concession of concessions.

Sir Edward Carson defines his minimum as the exclusion of Ulster. John Redmond is prepared to grant anything short of this exclusion. The one will not pass under the vote of a parliament in Dublin, or the other of a parliament in Westminster. In these circumstances there is exactly one way out. It is the exclusion of Ulster from the home rule bill, during the preparation and passing through the imperial parliament of a federal scheme for the whole United Kingdom. In his great speech on the address, Sir Edward told Mr. Redmond that he might win Ulster, but he would never force her consent. If Mr. Redmond is capable of such a sufficiently great act of statesmanship as foregoing an immediate personal triumph for a great patriotic abnegation, he may find himself regarded as the greatest of his country's friends. It is admitted that the recent home rule bill is only the prelude to a great federal act. The wisdom of the concession Mr. Redmond and his supporters are asked to submit to would, therefore, be not less striking than the magnanimity of it."

President Wilson is most in earnest about his idea as to the Panama canal tolls. He wants to have his way and he means to. Thus far he has been able to swing congress just as he saw fit and this will be the first real test he will have with his party associates who differ with him on this most important bit of legislation.

As long as this world goes round, the men in office will be criticised by the men out of office who want their jobs. This is true in municipal as well as state and national affairs. The man in office is always subjected to criticism, however just or unjust it may be, as long as he holds the coveted job.

You will hear lots of arguments between now and primary day as to the fitness of the various candidates for the office of commissioner. It will not be hard to sort the wheat from the chaff, however, if you really have the interests of the city at heart in making your selection.

It would seem as though the state politicians are having their hands full these days trying to decide what next to say about the taxes. Thus far "Tommy" Adams has said about all that has been said and that is not much in their favor.

This week Janesville bids welcome to the whole country with its mid-winter fair. The prizes offered in the various classes should bring forth a goodly number of entries and are well worth competing for.

So the Texas Rangers did not cross the border into Mexico as Rangers, but some mysterious armed force did, and brought back the body of the murdered American. Well, there are more ways than one of skinning a cat.

This is March, and August is a long way off, so be sure and attend the mid-winter fair and get the fair spirit and the habit. Two fairs in one year should put Janesville on the map.

It looks as though the usual spring freshet will not affect the Rock river this year as the snow and ice are gradually disappearing without any unusual disturbance.

Do not put the snow shovel away where you can't find it for there is always the "big snow" that comes the last of this month or the first of next.

All ready for the Janesville fair next August. Take the first car to the grounds to secure a good seat. Everybody boosting.

On the Spur of the Moment

Belated Scandals.

(Historians are beginning to tell tales about some very popular idols. They have lifted the lids from the private lives of so many old statesmen and have attempted to show that so many ideals of late that it is getting to be a national scandal.)

They tell us that John Hancock almost served a term in jail. And that he had to hustle round a lot to fix his bail. They say that our George Washington rode out nights in a hack. And that he never hit that cherry tree a whack. They say he bought the Indians and paid them off in rum. And down the gay and festive pike they say he dodged his taxes and that sometimes he could swear. In fact they've knocked him something fierce and laid his secrets bare.

They've tried to pull the laurels from the brow of Paul Revere. They say a hobby was the only horse he ever was near. They've dug up family skeletons and held them to the light. They say that Lafayette flunked out and was afraid to fight. They say Pat Henry didn't speak on "Liberty or death." And that E. Franklin Johnson often had frumment on his breast. But let them tell their funny talks, we really must allow. These "eminent historians" have got to live somehow.

From the Hickeyville Clarion. Grandma Purdy, who has been falling rapidly for nine years, and is at present in a very feeble state of health, is able to do only light work now, and has accepted a lucrative position running a gang saw down to Ame Hilliker's mill. Miss Amy Pringle, our village milliner, has gone to the city to look over the new spring styles and find out whether she dares spring 'em here.

A traveling gentleman from Racine, Wis., is registered at the Huttel Hickeyville. He represents a safety razor concern and ought to do very well in this town, where the boys shave every other leap year. An optimistical looking gent blowed into the other day with a Hue of hymn books, in which he hoped to interest the deacons of the Hardshell church. After sellin' 'em a norder he entertained 'em in his room at the hotel and left town that night with a lot of cuff buttons, two derby hats, one fancy silk vest and three watches and chains. Deacon Pringle says he believes that hymn books are sort of side line with that gent, for when he got to jugling the pasteboards he acted like a regular old dum sucker. The hymn books have not yet arrived by express as promised.

The Contented Man.
I don't care how the blizzards blow, How it may rain or it may snow, Or how the populace may roar, For I don't have to work, you see, I am an independent man, and I worry me, nobody can. The price of new fall hats and such Does not concern me very much. Let others rant and rave the air, And cuss the interests everywhere. The trusts can boost where'er they will And not touch me. I just sit still And let the trusts do what they please.

Musings of a Pessimist.
The drowning politician grasps at straw votes. A lot of windjammers get gabby about the people's rights when they don't know the people's rights from their lefts.

A lot of people with nerve get by, while a lot of others with ability don't. About the only valid excuse for wearing long flowing whiskers is that it does away with the necessity of buying neckties.

Nobody has got a better opinion of himself than a man who has accumulated $25,000 in a small town. There is such a thing as being too close to nature. There are times when some of it should be washed off.

SIGN NEW CONTRACTS FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Will Remodel Lobby at Y. M. C. A. Building.—Filter for Tank To Be Completed Soon.

The building committee of the Y. M. C. A., consisting of Dr. E. E. Loomis, Henry Hanson and S. B. Heddies, yesterday signed contracts for the remodeling of the lobby and vestibule entrance of the association building. By the terms of the contract the improvements will include stone steps, redecoration in the parlor, including beamed ceilings and tiled floors. The woodwork of the lobby will be of Flemish Oak with a complete line of new furniture to correspond.

The lobby work was not included in the original contract but the building committee deemed it necessary in order to have the building modern and up-to-date throughout. The filter for the swimming pool, which has been delayed for so long a period will be completed and in working order within the next few weeks. With the finishing of this work the association will be complete and the citizens of Janesville have a just right to feel that the Janesville Y. M. C. A. will be one of the best institutions in the state and one that should appeal to the hearty support of all classes. New plans or organization of the different phases of class work for the members are being worked out by the management to present a program in all branches. Competent men will be placed in the handling of the work and new meeting features will be instituted.

Meeting Postponed: The meeting of the council, scheduled for this afternoon, was adjourned until Friday of this week, as no important business was brought before the commissioners. Case Adjourned: By agreement of the contesting parties the case of the State Bank of Milton Junction against W. J. Litts, W. H. Crandall and John Waldman over a note was adjourned for one week in the municipal court this afternoon.

PHILOMATHIAN CLUB

HAS A NOVEL PARTY

Elaborate Entertainment Given at Home of Mrs. T. O. Howe on Monday Afternoon.

Members of the Philomathian Club enjoyed an elaborate entertainment at the home of Mrs. T. O. Howe, South Third street, from two to five o'clock Monday afternoon.

As the guests arrived they were greeted at the door by Mrs. W. A. Munn, doorkeeper, dressed as a Spanish lady with tambourine in hand, the admission charge.

The home was beautifully trimmed with flowers and the colors of different countries. Three different rooms were decorated in appropriate fashion and the ladies who served were crowned in the dress of the particular nationality.

The French room was in charge of Mesdames E. D. Roberts, J. R. Whitely and F. H. Farnsworth. The Japanese room was very artistic with the many colors and beautiful decorations of Japan. The ladies that presided at the tea urn and had charge of the refreshments were Mesdames C. H. Weirich, A. J. McGowan and C. E. O'Brien. The German room, where ginger ale was poured from an antique samovar that came from England, was in charge of Mesdames F. Koehlin, C. Capelle and A. Gibbons.

A continuous program was given during the afternoon. Johanna and Esther Muggleton danced the Russian dances and Highland fling; Priscilla and Nancy Muggleton gave the Jack Horner dance with music, and the piano; a mock wedding party with Mrs. Walter Helms wearing her real wedding gown as the bride, marched through the rooms to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Hiram Murdoch. The bride was accompanied by two pages, Masters Capelle and Whiffen, who carried her train. The flower girls were Barbara, Priscilla and Nancy Muggleton, Ruth Howe, Elizabeth Capelle and Lucile Craft. The maid of honor was Miss Clemens. A Japanese song was sung by Ruth Howe, Lucile Craft and Elizabeth Capelle.

The entertainment was given to raise money to pay off their indebtedness on the room that the club is furnishing at Mercy Hospital. Yesterday the ladies cleared about $11.00, which will pay for the furnishings of the room with what they already have on hand. The ladies were congratulated on the successful entertainments that they have given to raise money for so good a purpose.

Wait until you see that Car-Nation Car.

TELEPHONE LINEMAN FALLS THIRTY FEET

C. W. Myers Sustains Fracture of Hip and Internal Injuries

This Morning.

Falling thirty-five feet from the top of a telephone pole to the ground, C. W. Myers, a lineman in the employ of the Rock County Telephone company, fractured his hip and sustained serious internal injuries.

He was working alone on a pole near the Merrill residence on St. Lawrence avenue, when he lost his footing and fell to the ground. George E. King was coming down the hill at the time and heard him as he struck the ground. King rushed to the man and found him to be conscious. The other workmen, who were about a block down the street, were informed of the accident and immediately conveyed the unfortunate man to the Empire Hotel, where he has been lying for the past few months. Dr. James Mills was summoned and upon examination, found that Myers had fractured his hip, and had sustained serious internal injuries.

Myers became unconscious shortly after he was placed in bed. He is a heavy set man and his fall was severe. He is said to have been a very good workman.

ADJOURN MEETING OF PARK STOCKHOLDERS

Stockholders of Park Association Will Meet Tonight at City Hall.

All Urged to Be Present.

Because there was not a quorum at the meeting of the stockholders of the Janesville Park Association, held last night at the assembly room of the city hall, the meeting was adjourned until seven-thirty tonight. As sixty-one of the stockholders are by law necessary to change the articles of incorporation, it is urged that all stockholders be present at last night's meeting, all discussion being left over until tonight.

JANESVILLE MARCOONS TO PLAY STOUTTON; EXPECT HARD BATTLE

Tonight the Janesville Maroons will play the husky Stoutton Vagabond basketball team at the city hall.

This is the first game that the Maroons have played since they trounced the Edgerton All Stars, but they expect a victory against the Stoutton opposition tonight.

The Stoutton five had had a number of fast teams on their schedule and have been successful against the majority of them. The Janesville line-up will be: Faller, Brown, Blunk and French, guards.

DANE COUNTY PLANS

PROTEST ON TAXES

Non-partisans Follow Rock County's Lead and Call Convention for Next Saturday.

Following the lead of Rock county, non-partisans of Dane county will hold a mass meeting to discuss high taxes and the present extravagance of the state administration at Madison on Saturday. A call signed by twelve village citizens has been issued for a meeting which will be held at the high school building.

Prominent Men Interested.
The men who signed the call are, William F. Johnson of Middleton, former sheriff and present chairman of Dane county board of supervisors; V. E. Coy, supervisor of the town of Burke; Pay Hamersley, supervisor of the village of Madison; William Dempsey, supervisor of the town of Blooming Grove; Torger G. Thompson of Deerfield, former member of the legislature and former supervisor of the village of Madison; Elmer E. Mills, T. G. Murray, John J. Bled, Charles S. Westover and M. J. Vincent of Madison.

Politicians Are Divided.
In political party affiliation one-half of these men are republicans and the other half democrats.

Attorney T. C. Richmond, Mr. Pierce of the Rock county bankers will address the convention.

BIDS ARE RECEIVED FOR ROAD CRUSHER

Members of County Highway Committee Meet With Representatives of Machine Companies.

Members of the highway committee of the county board, composed of B. D. Treadway of Beloit, Thomas A. Treadway of Madison, J. B. Mosley, town of Beloit, Highway Commissioner Charles E. Moore and representatives of at least eight different highway machinery companies held a meeting at the county house today at which various makes of stone crushers and gravel screeners were carefully considered and the sealed bids of the different companies on their machines submitted to the committee.

The plan of the committee to take one machine on trial and if it works to the satisfaction of the highway commissioner three others will be purchased and placed in use in different parts of the county.

The members of the highway committee and Mr. Moore have given considerable time and attention to the matter of stone crushers and expect to have a machine which will suit the purposes in the county. The equipment was ordered purchased at the last session of the county supervisors.

DAN HYDE UNDER ARREST ON CHARGE OF SLANDER SAYS IT'S A FRAME-UP

Daniel Hyde, detective and boxing referee, who was on the board of the Bower City Athletic Club in February, is held at the Milwaukee county jail pending the arrival of Sheriff Koloschki of Green Bay, Brown county, with a warrant charging him with slander.

Hyde was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Bernard Gettelman Monday night and was placed in the jury room at the county jail until the arrival of the sheriff's office on Tuesday. He declares his arrest is a "frame-up."

According to District Attorney Davis of Brown county, the complaint against Hyde was made by the late Edward Cunningham, a Milwaukee private detective and investigator for the Wisconsin Bankers' Association, upon the occasion of a one day visit to Green Bay, in which he secured evidence which led to warrants being sworn out for the proprietors of twenty-three of Green Bay's 123 saloons. Defamation of Cunningham's character in a way that brought the saloons into disrepute was the charge in Cunningham's complaint.

Store Notes From Rehberg's

Everything in Fine Fettle and Opening of Entire Store But Few Days Off.

It will be but a few days now until we will be ready to announce to the public the opening of our entire store including the Milwaukee Street section. The place these days resembles a beehive; bustling workmen are tearing out old sections, rebuilding, repainting and redecorating. This store when finished, will be a "Janesville's Greatest Clothing Store."

Unique Window Display at Smith's Pharmacy

Local Drug Store Has Display Window Containing Goods Advertised in The Gazette.

The last link in the chain between the manufacturer of advertised goods and the final sale through the retail store is cleverly displayed by Smith's Pharmacy. Not only does their display window contain the goods as advertised, but displays large signs reading: "Standard Goods as Advertised in Daily Newspapers," together with copies of the advertisements.

The Gazette. Each of the products displayed is meritorious and enjoys a large sale. Large manufacturers whose goods are known throughout this country use considerable space in The Gazette to advertise their products. Realizing the results that would accrue from this publicity Smith Pharmacy have seized upon the chance to secure the agency for these advertised goods, enjoy a big business on them, and are to be commended on their keenness of vision.

FORMER JANESVILLE BOY WILL STUDY IN GERMANY

Word has been received in this city to the effect that Albert Hatterell, now of Los Angeles, a former Janesville boy, and a graduate from the Janesville high school, is about to take up special work in Munich, Germany. He is one of the scarce twenty throughout the entire United States chosen by the government in taken on this special work. He will leave Los Angeles on March 21st, expecting to return the latter part of August. The work covers three months of study. The school board of Los Angeles are paying half of his expenses while he is on the trip.

AFFIRMATIVE TEAM

TO DEBATE FRIDAY

Trio of Literacy Test Adherents Will Journey to La Grange, Ill., Friday in League Event.

The Janesville high school affirmative trio of speakers, comprising one of the teams in the Beloit College debating league, will debate this week at La Grange, Illinois. Because of dissatisfaction on the part of Prof. J. T. Shafer and the two teams, relative to the various wordings of the question sent out to the league teams by the college management, and Beloit's withdrawal from the league, it was decided that the debate would be abandoned this year at the local institution, but after an earnest plea on the part of the La Grange negative team, to have Janesville appear, an agreement was reached.

The team will leave for La Grange on Friday morning, and will debate on Friday evening. Carl Schoof, George Spohn, associates, and Karl Frick, leader, will compose the speakers.

The Beloit affirmative team were to have debated the Janesville negative trio on Friday, but they left the league early in the year. The league has been a failure this year, and its members are being looked for with more earnestness shown on the parts of the contesting schools.

The question to be argued Friday evening at La Grange is, Resolved, that the literacy test is a method in further restricting immigration into the United States.

At the THEATER

"How does Howe do it?" is the question usually asked by those seeing Jayman H. Howe's most recent triumph—a comprehensive reproduction depicting the details as well as the magnitude of the gigantic task of constructing the Panama canal. It is a natural question to ask because so many other photographers have tried and failed to do justice to the immensity of the undertaking. They found that to record on motion film how this crowning achievement since the dawn of history was consummated was as baffling as the actual job of digging the "big ditch" was for the French who finally abandoned it in despair. But where others failed to film the immensity of the undertaking, Mr. Howe has succeeded in securing the only reproduction which shows the prodigious project adequately and in all its phases. Now that the canal is practically completed, this reproduction is of course of the most timely interest, but entirely aside from this its importance can never be denied or over-estimated because it portrays what must be considered for centuries to come as the outcome of human endeavor. When it is remembered that not only is this the only film record that is absolutely faultless photographically as well as in subject matter, and that this is the only time Mr. Howe will exhibit it here, the significance of Mr. Howe's engagement assumes a greater importance than ever to the legion of local patrons of his unique travel festival. It affords an opportunity which should be taken advantage of by every American not alone because of its world-wide importance but still more so because the Panama canal is so purely American—because it is distinctly an American victory by American brain and brawn. The program will include many other big new features.

"Peg O' My Heart," J. Hartley Manners' comedy of youth, in which Laurette Taylor is now giving the greatest triumph and longest run of consecutive performances the American stage has ever known, will be the attraction at the Myers theater Thursday, March 19. Oliver Morosco has chosen Laurette Taylor, the dainty little English actress, to portray the leading part, which lends itself charmingly to her personality.

The story deals with a young uncultivated Irish girl, who by the caprice of a rich man's will, is left to be educated by his aristocratic relatives in England. She offends them violently by her lack of manners, and they dislike having her in their home, but they have suffered certain financial reverses which makes it necessary for them to avail themselves of the monthly stipend allotted to them by the dead man's will for bringing up the niece. A great deal of amusement is afforded by the comic contrast between the naïveté of Peg and the artificiality of her relatives.

But for all her crudity, the young Irish girl is at heart a better person than the rest of her family. She proves this one night when she prevents her cousin from eloping with a married man, and then, when the household is aroused, shields the girl by thrusting herself into an embarrassing situation. Ultimately the Irish lass is married to a charming gentleman, with a title to his name. Jerry, who has been captivated by her sweetness and natural simplicity.

This production is a fine one and the supporting cast includes Isabel Vernon, Colin Campbell, Maude Allen, Fred L. Tilden, Nellie Horan, Felt Trenton, Reginald Carrington, John Lyon, etc.

EDGERTON

Edgerton, March 10.—Prof. Denmore of Beloit college visited his daughter, of the high school faculty, yesterday. He gave an interesting talk on Beloit College before the high school students yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watson went to Mineral Point yesterday morning, for a few days' visit with friends. Miss Myra Lyntz is home from Chicago, where she has finished her course at the Patterson military school. She has accepted a position at Joliet, where she will go the last of the month.

Mrs. W. W. Huxtable was a Janesville caller yesterday. A basketball game between a team from Milton Junction and a Y. M. C. A. team, which has been coached by Lowell Whittet, took place after school yesterday. Edgerton won by a score of 54 to 19. F. O. Holt was called to Janesville last evening by the serious illness of his father. Miss Nellie Bradley returned Monday after spending a few days with relatives in Janesville.

Little Benny's Note Book.

By Lee Pape. Me and Reddy Murfy and my cuzzin Artie was standing awn my payment this afternoon, and a horn started to blaw, and the waffel waggins came around the corner and stopped to wait for peepil to kum up and buy waffels if they wuntid to, the waffel man sticking his face out of the side of the waggins and blawing his horn evvry wunt in a wile, beeing a pritty good blower, wich he awt to be, blawing awl the time.

G, if I had a sent id gtt a waffel, I sed, and Artie sed, So wood I, and Reddy Murfy sed, G, may be I wood, ent, I bet enyboddy anything they havent got the nerve to go down and ask him if he gives samuils. I bet you havent got the nerve to go down and ask him yurself, I sed. The heck I ain't, sed Reddy Murfy, I will if enyboddy duz it attir me. Ill do it attir you, I sed.

Do you sware it, sed Reddy Murfy, and I sed, yes I sware it, if Artie duz it attir me. Awl rite, sed Artie. Do you krawss yure hart, sed Reddy Murfy, and I sed, yes, I krawss my hart. So do I, sed Artie. Well, krawss it, sed Reddy. Wich we both did, and Reddy wawked down to the kornir, Artie and me following him, but the waffel man didn't see us awn akount of the frunt of the wagon beeing in the way, and Reddy Murfy went erround to the side of the waggins and sed, Do you give samuils, mister. Have you got eny munny, sed the woffel man.

No, sed Reddy Murfy. Then, clear out befor you get throwed out, sed the waffel man. Wich Reddy did, kumng ovir to wawe me and Artie was standing and saying, Now go awn, you do it. Wich I did, going erround to the side of the waggins and looking at the waffel man, wich he was a big red headed man with freckils awl ovir his face except his nose, beeing to red for freckils.

Helo, sed the waffel man, do you want a waffel. How much are they, I sed. A sent apiece, sed the waffel man. Do you give samuils, I sed. Say, have you got eny munny, sed the waffel man. No sir, I sed, and kwick wawked back to wawe Artie and Reddy Murfy was standing, saying, Its yure term, Artie, go awn.

G wizz, hes mad now, sed Artie. No backing out, you krawssed yure hart, go awn, sed Reddy Murfy. Wich Artie did, wawking down and standing looking at the waffel man without saying anything, and after a wile the waffel man sed, Well, do you want a waffel or do you think this is a side sho.

Do you give samuils, sed Artie. Yes, sed the waffel man, heers wun. And he kwick throo a handul of flowir rite in Arties face, and sum of it was still in his hair attir suppir, awn akount of Artie forgetting it was in his hure and wen he wet his face to comb it the flowir turned to dough.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! IF IT IS FALLING OR FULL OF DANDRUFF—25 CENT DANDERINE

Ladies, Men! Here's the best 25 cents you ever spent—Don't wait! Apply a little tonight.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now any time—will surely save your hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

MORTGAGE ON HOME TO SECURE FREEDOM

Philip Loguidice Strains Every Resource to Provide $2,000 Bail Bond.

Mortgaging his little property in the southern part of the city of Beloit for a thousand dollars in order to provide for the $2,000 bail bond necessary to secure his freedom while his case is appealed to the supreme court, Philip Loguidice returned to Beloit this afternoon a free man for a time at least. In addition to the $1,000 mortgage, made out in favor of Jesse Earle, clerk of the court, Loguidice furnished $1,000 in cash, which was deposited at a local bank. His appeal to the highest state tribunal will be taken at once through his attorneys, Woolsey and Arnold of Beloit.

The case of Father W. A. Goebel against the street car company, a personal injury damage suit in which the plaintiff seeks to secure $2,000, was argued to the jury by counsel before Judge Grimm this morning. The judge delivered his instructions this afternoon and the jury retired to consider a verdict at two o'clock.

The jury has been summoned for the next case in the day calendar, Grodovant vs. Goodman, for nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

To Test Air in Room.
A simple way to tell whether your room is properly ventilated is to place a wide necked bottle of water, into which you have put half an ounce of lime water, in the room, letting it remain uncovered over night. If in the morning the lime water is milk the ventilation is bad. If the lime water becomes milk on your covering the bottle the mouth with your hand and shaking the vessel the ventilation is not sufficiently good. If the lime water remains clear the air of that room is pure.

MOON IN ECLIPSE ON WEDNESDAY EVENING

Almost Total Obscuration Is Figured Out By Scientists.—Starts at 8:42, Lasts Some Time.

Wednesday evening, if the weather be clear, residents of Janesville will have an opportunity of watching an almost total eclipse of the moon. At 8:42 p. m. the moon first enters the shadow of the earth. At 10:13 p. m. the middle of the eclipse, all but 8 per cent of the diameter of the moon will be in the shadow, and at 11:44 p. m. the moon leaves the shadow of the earth.

It will be plainly visible to the naked eye, but with the aid of opera glasses the phenomena can be accurately observed.

PURE BRED SEED SPECIAL STARTS TOUR OF STATE

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., March 10.—The pure bred seed special left Milwaukee today on a ten days' tour of the state in co-operation with the Milwaukee chamber of commerce, the Wisconsin bankers association, and the University of Wisconsin college of agriculture. Steps will be taken in turn at Port Washington, Manitowoc, Green Bay, Oconto, Appleton, New London, Waupun, Neillsville, Black River Falls, Elroy and Baraboo. The grain car was equipped with exhibits by the agricultural college and contains prize winning samples of many world-beating varieties of grain and forage crops. In five of the counties through which this special will pass, county orders of the Wisconsin experiment association will hold their annual meeting on the day the seed grain train visits their town. These are: Manitowoc, Marathon, Clark, Jackson and Sauk. In the other six counties which the train will visit an opportunity will be provided for the farmers to organize a county order.

STRIMPLE*To The Automobile Public:

A very marked increase of business has compelled us to increase our GARAGE SPACE in like proportion. We have just added to our space the DOUBLE store building just vacated by PREILIPP & CONWAY and joining our present building on the west. This gives us 73 feet front by 190 deep, the largest GROUND FLOOR garage in Southern Wisconsin.

The whole place will be remodelled, improvements added, and made most convenient and serviceable.

Automobile owners, and prospective owners, are cordially invited to visit our place. The best workmen will be on hand to furnish service and the best attention of which we are capable will be given to every person and every customer.

In our show room may be seen,

The LOZIER, than which there is no classier car built;

The MITCHELL, no better service car than this is made;

The CROW ELK-HART, and this car with its two-year guarantee, has no equal at the price. It has finish, durability, power, easy riding and equipment equal to any $1250 car on the market. We have the state agency on this car, are selling it to dealers throughout the state and are selling it here for $1075, approximately the factory price. You get the benefit of this unequalled bargain.

You are invited to visit our show room.

FACE DISFIGURED WITH ERUPTION

Spread Over Entire Face, Itched and Burned Terribly. Heavy White Crust. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Made Complete Cure.

870 East Elm St., Streator, Ill.—"A running sore broke out above my right eye, which spread over my entire face. It started as a small pimple, and the contents of this small pimple ran down my face. Wherever this ran a new sore appeared. It itched and burned terribly. I couldn't touch my face. It burned so, I discontinued my face treatment and I couldn't be seen for everyone was afraid of it. It looked like a disease of some kind; it was all red and a heavy white crust on it. Everything kept out of my way, afraid it would spread. I lost rest at night and I couldn't bear to have anything touch my face, not even the pillow. I had to lie on the back of the head. I was always red when morning came so I could get up. It was extremely painful.

"I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. At last I thought of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I commenced using them. I used the sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, one twenty-five cent cake of Cuticura Soap and a half box of the fifty-cent size of Cuticura Ointment. It took three weeks to complete the cure. (Signed) Mrs. Caroline Miller, Apr. 30, 1913.

Cuticura Soap 25c, and Cuticura Ointment 50c, are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

TAKE SODA FOR SOURNESS, GAS OR INDIGESTION

Indigestion food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by hyperacidity. In other words, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. This causes much like garbage sour gas, a can forming acid fluids and alkali which inflame the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy lump in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate, sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

To get instant relief he tells us to get a package of 10 grain Sodagen tablets at any drug store and take one or two tablets, anything followed by a tumbler of water which promptly neutralizes this irritating acid; stops fermentation; absorbs the gases and sweetens the entire digestive system.

A local downtown druggist states that these 10 grain Sodagen tablets are an old favorite antidote constantly prescribed because of their harmless, pleasant, and simple compound of Soda, Calcium Carbonate and Magnesia U. S. P.

"CASCARETS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, SICK, WHEN SHAKY, CONSTIPATED—DIME A BOX

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged constipated bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you lively, active, bowels clean, stomach sweet, head clear, and make you feel like a new man. Don't forget the children.

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo. — "I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertises itself." — Mrs. S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Information for all Lung Sufferers

Egan's Lung Remedy, in receipt of many really wonderful reports, and will be pleased to forward to you copies of original letters and testimonials on diet and proper care needed in recovering health. Investigate this case:—

1619 S. Main St., St. Paul, Minn.

"My Dear Sir: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, and in February of 1912 I took with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful hacking cough, which no medicine I had failed to cure. It was at this time, March, 1912, that I found E. J. Egan's Lung Remedy. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well. I cannot thank you too highly for the good it has done."

(Signed) HOWARD L. KLOTZ.

These abstracts of patient requests, E. J. Egan's Lung Remedy has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for all cases of Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Pneumonia, and all other lung troubles. Contains no narcotics, no opiates, no habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet, or booklet of testimonials, and write to E. J. Egan, Laboratory, Chicago, Ill. For evidence. ## Cheap and Easily Made, But Ends a Cough Quickly

How to Make the Very Best Cough Remedy at Home. Fully Guaranteed.

This pint of cough syrup is easily made at home and saves you about $2.00 as compared with ordinary cough remedies. It relieves obstinate coughs—even whooping cough—quickly, and is splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, spasmodic croup and hoarseness.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle, and add the sugar syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Tastes good.

This takes right hold of a cough and gives almost instant relief. It stimulates the appetite, and is slightly laxative—both excellent features.

Pinex, as perhaps you know, is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and the other natural healing pine elements.

No other preparation will do the work of Pinex in this mixture, although strained honey can be used instead of the sugar syrup, if desired.

Thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada now use this Pinex and Sugar Syrup remedy. This plan has often been imitated, but the old successful combination has never been equaled. Its low cost and quick results have made it immensely popular.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"In effect, yes," he qualified.

"What did she tell you?" demanded Hetty, laying her hand on his arm.

"I will confess she didn't reveal the secret that you consider a barrier, but she went so far as to say that it was very dark and dreadful," he said lightly.

They were speaking in very low tones. "When I pinned her down, to it, she added that it did not in any sense bear upon your honor. But there is time enough to talk about this later on. For the present let's not discuss the past. I know enough of your history from your own lips as well as what little I could get out of Sara, to feel sure that you are in a way, drifting. I intend to look after you, at least until you find yourself. Your sudden break with Sara has been explained to me. Leslie Randall is at the back of it. Sara told me that she tried to force you to marry him. I think you did quite right in going away as you did, but, on the other hand, was it quite fair to me?"

"Yes, it was most fair," she said, compressing her lips.

He frowned.

"We can't possibly be of the same opinion," he said seriously.

"You wouldn't say that if you knew everything."

"How long do you intend to stay in London?"

"I don't know. When does this train arrive there?"

"At four o'clock, I think. Will you go to an hotel or to friends?" He put the question very delicately.

She smiled faintly. "You mean the Murgatroyds?"

"Your father is here, I am informed. And you must have other friends or relatives who—"

"I shall go to a small hotel I know near Trafalgar square," she interrupted quietly. "You must not come there to see me, Brandon."

"I shall expect you to dine with me at—say Prince's this evening," was his response to this.

She shook her head and then turned to look out of the window. He sat back in his seat and for many miles, with deep perplexity in his eyes, studied her half-averted face. The old uneasiness returned. Was this obstacle, after all, so great that it could not be overcome?

They lunched together, but were singularly reserved all through the meal. A plan was growing in her brain, a cruel but effective plan that made her despise herself and yet contained the only means of escape from an even more cruel situation.

He drove with her from the station to the small hotel off Trafalgar square. There were no rooms to be had. It was the week of Ascot and the city was still crowded with people who awaited only the royal sign to break the fetters that bound them to London. Somewhat perturbed, she allowed him to escort her to several hotels of a like character. Failing in each case, she was in despair. At last she plucked up the courage to say to him, not without constraint and embarrassment:

"I think, Brandon, if you were to allow me to apply alone to one of these places I could get in without much trouble."

"Good Lord!" he gasped, going very red with dismay. "What a fool I—"

"I'll try the Savoy," she said quickly, and then laughed at him. His face was the picture of distress.

"I shall come for you, tonight at—"

Birds Worthy of Gratitude.

It has been estimated that the birds in the United States save $200,000,000 worth of crops each year. The tree sparrows in Iowa eat 4,666 pounds of weed seed daily. One full-fledged robin will eat 16 feet of caterpillar daily, or about 4,569 individuals a month.

eight," he said, stopping the taxi at once. "Goodbye till then."

He got out and gave directions to the chauffeur. Then he did a very strange thing. He hailed another taxi and, climbing in, started off in the wake of the two women. From a point of vantage near the corridor leading to the "American bar," he saw Hetty sign her slips and move off toward the left. Whereupon, seeing that she was quite out of the way, he approached the manager's office and asked for accommodations.

"Not a thing?"

"Everything has been taken for weeks, sir. I'm sorry."

"Sorry, too. I had hoped you might have something left for a friend who expects to stop here—a Miss Castleton."

"Miss Castleton has just applied. We could not give her anything."

"EH?"

"Fortunately we could let her have rooms until eight this evening. We were more than pleased to offer them to her, for a few hours, although they are reserved for parties coming down from Liverpool tonight."

Booth tried the Cecil and got a most undesirable room. Calling up the Savoy on the telephone, he got her room. The maid answered. She informed him that Miss Castleton had just that instant gone out and would not return before seven o'clock.

"I suppose she will not remove her trunks from the station until she finds a permanent place to lodge," he inquired. "Can I be of any service?"

"I think not, sir. She left no word, sir."

He hung up the receiver and straightway dashed over to the Savoy, hoping to catch her before she left the hotel. Just inside the door he came to an abrupt stop. She was at the news and ticket booth in the lobby, closely engaged in conversation with the clerk. Presently the latter took up the telephone, and after a brief conversation with some one at the other end, turned to Hetty and nodded his head. Whereupon she nodded her own adorable head and began the search for her purse. Booth edged around for her purse. Booth edged around for her purse. Booth edged around for her purse.

forget!"

"If I only could—forget!"

"Rest. I will hold you tight and keep you warm. We're in for a nasty crossing, but it is paradise for me. I am mad with the delight of having you here, holding you close to me, feeling you in my arms. The wilder the night the better, for I am wild with the joy of it all. I love you! I love you!" He strained her closer to him in a sort of paroxysm.

She was quiet for a long time. Then she breathed into his ear:

"You will never know how much I love you!"

"I thought so," he announced calmly. "I wired for rooms before I left London."

"Really, this is ridiculous—"

"Don't frown like that, Hetty," he pleaded.

As they rattled and bounced over the cobblestones in a taxi-meter on the way to the Place Vendome, he devoted the whole of his conversation to the delicious breakfast they were to have, expatiating glibly on the wonderful berries that would come first in that always-to-be-remembered meal. She was ravenously hungry by the time they reached the hotel, just from listening to his dissertation on chops and rolls and coffee as they are served in Paris, to say nothing of waffles and honey and the marmalade that no Englishman can do without.

Alone in his room, however, he was quite another person. His calm assurance took flight the instant he closed the door and moodily began to prepare for his bath. Resolution was undiminished, but the facts in the case were most desolating. Whatever it was that stood between them, there was no gaining its power to influence their lives. It was no trifle that caused her to take this second flight, and the sooner he came to realize the seriousness of opposition the better.

He made up his mind on one point in that half-hour before breakfast; if she asked him again to let her go her way in peace, it was only fair to her and right that he should submit to the inevitable. She loved him, he was sure of it. Then there must be a very good reason for her perplexing attitude toward him. He would make one more attempt to have the truth from her. Failing in that, he would accept the situation as hopeless, for the time being at least. She should know that he loved her deeply enough for that.

She joined him in the little open-air cafe, and they sat down at a table in a remote corner. There were few people breakfasting. In her tender blue eyes there was a look of sadness that haunted him, even as she smiled and called him beloved.

Sleepy passengers crowded with them into the customs department. She, alone among them all, was smiling brightly, as if the world could be sweet at an hour when, by all odds, it should be sleepiest.

"I was up and on the lookout for you at Amiens," he declared, as they walked off together. "You might have got off there, you know," with a wry grin.

"I shall not run away from you again, Brandon," she said earnestly. "I promise, on my honor."

CHAPTER XV.

Rattling Old Bones.

They journeyed to Paris by the night mail. He was waiting for her on the platform when she descended from the wagon lit in the Gare du Nord. Sleepy passengers crowded with them into the customs department. She, alone among them all, was smiling brightly, as if the world could be sweet at an hour when, by all odds, it should be sleepiest.

"I was up and on the lookout for you at Amiens," he declared, as they walked off together. "You might have got off there, you know," with a wry grin.

"I shall not run away from you again, Brandon," she said earnestly. "I promise, on my honor."

"By Jove," he cried, "that's a relief!" Then he broke into a happy laugh.

"I shall go to the Ritz," she said, after her effects had been examined
